But I call to God and the Lord saves me. Evening, morning and noon I cryout in distress, and He hears my voice.

Psalm 55:16-17

Morning, noon and evening - each stage of time offers new challenges and activities, and in all we strive to make Christ pre-eminent.

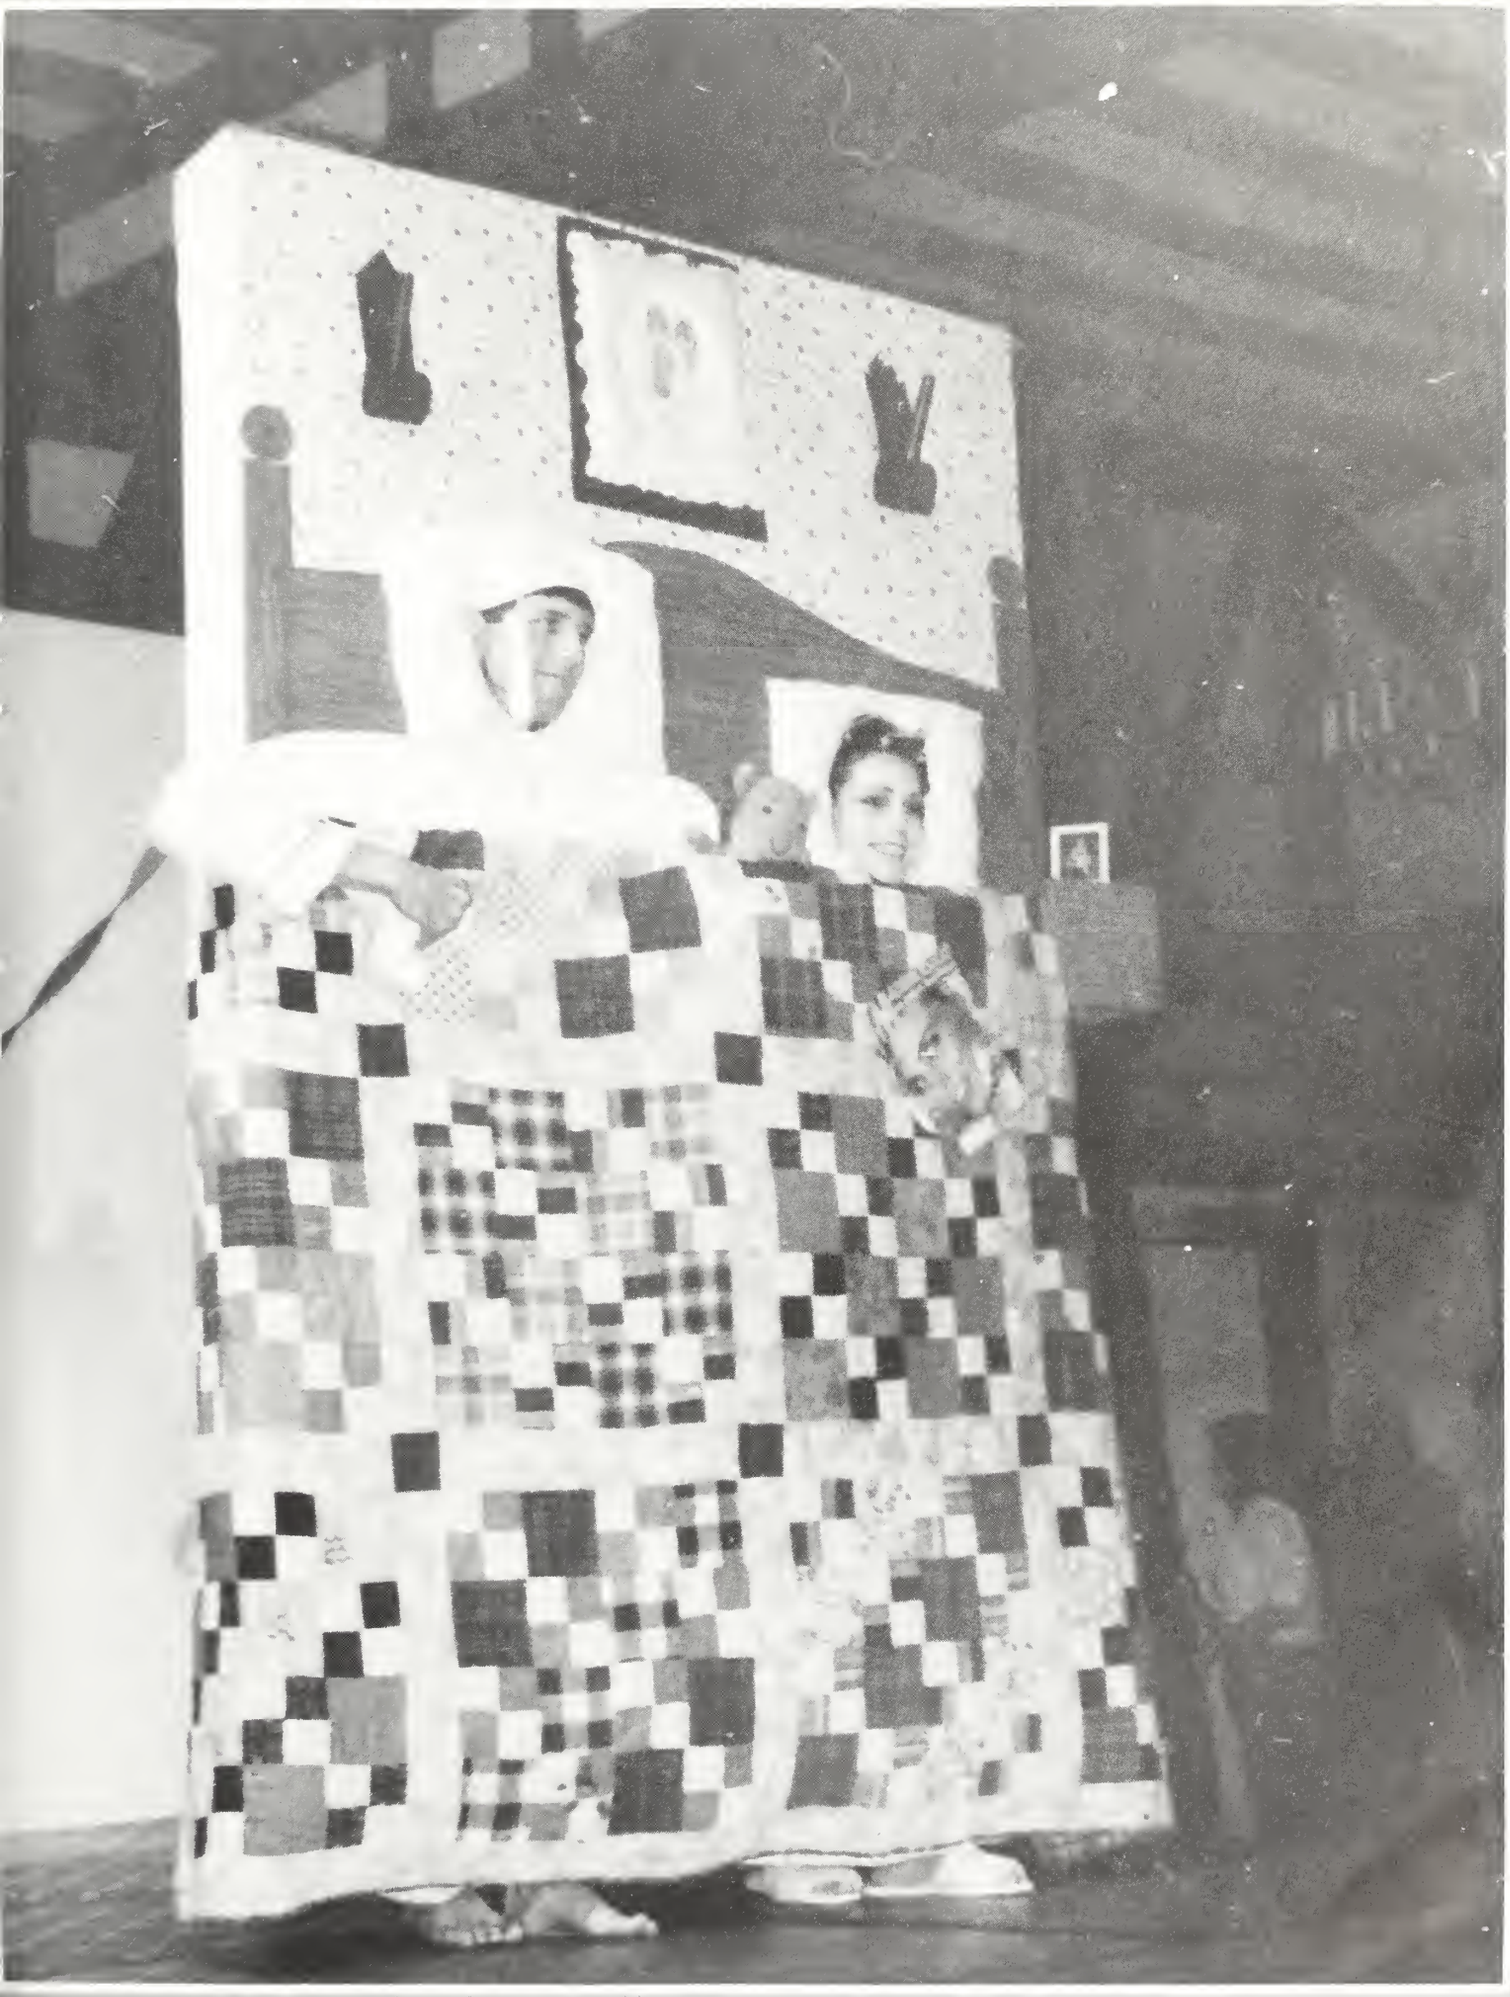
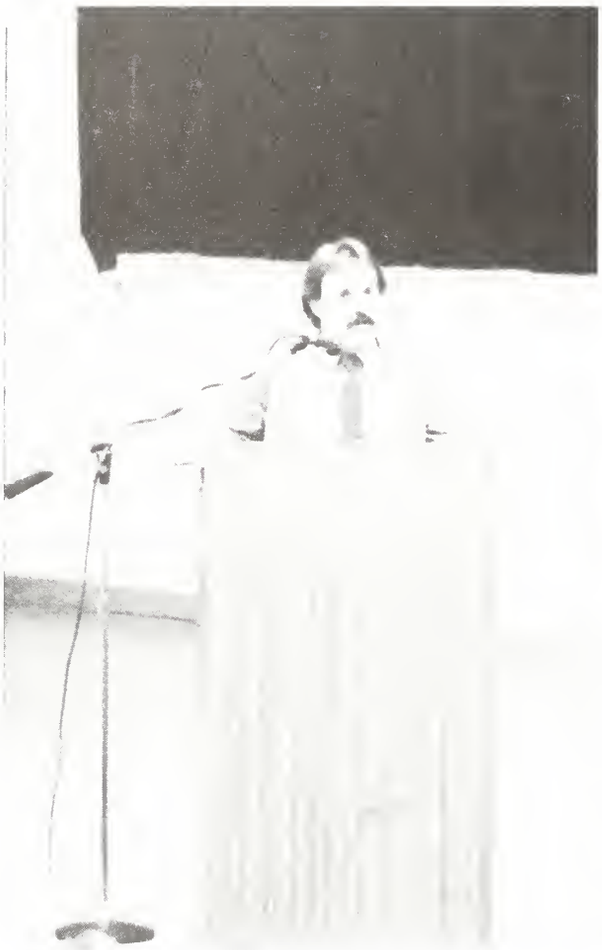
Activities and Events

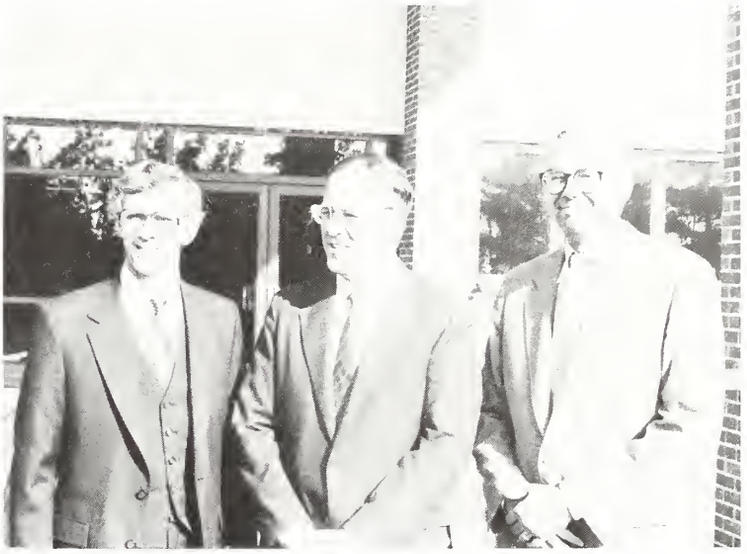


Madrigals

Late November featured the annual Madrigal Dinners. As is customary, the dinner was around two-and-a-half hours long and consisted of the Madrigal Singers, the Covenant Brass Choir, a children's choir, and a minstrel, all performing during the dinner feast. Response to the annual event was tremendous and resulted in the event being sold out soon after the tickets went on sale.



Chapel

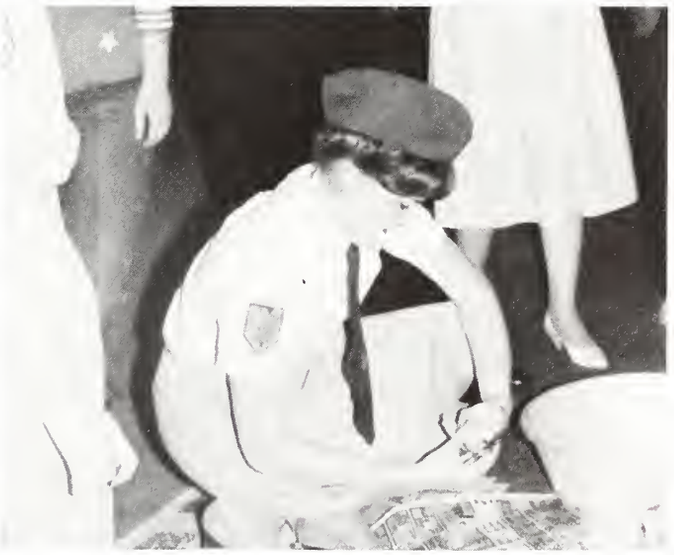


The subject of chapel proved to be a controversial item during the year because of talk of changing the existing policies. As for this year however, the basic chapel system remained the same except for minor changes in small group chapels. The program this year varied from controversial speakers, such as Al Martin and Franky Schaefer, all the way to handbell choirs and others musical programs. Through these different programs it can be said that the Word of God was presented continually and uncompromised.

Masquerade Party And U.S.O. Show

The Social Committee gave the students a chance to re-live Halloween by making this year's fall banquet a masquerade party. The banquet was held in the Great Hall and featured a contest for the best costume, a scavenger hunt, and even a breakdancer. Students came to the banquet dressed as everything from Raggedy Ann and Andy to the Bermuda Triangle. The winners of the contest were Arny Arnold and Robin Gabriel who came as a bedroom set. Second place belonged to Todd Pettit and Tammie Pols who came as a clothesline while third place was nabbed by Matt Phillips and Tim Van Voorhis who came as Mondale and Ferraro.

The Social Committee's next function was the annual spring semester's "Kilter Night." The women of Covenant got an opportunity to ask their favorite man to a 1940's style U.S.O. show, dressed for the occasion. This also took place in the Great Hall and featured Forties-style entertainment, good food and group contests.



Talent Show

Once again Covenant's best talent came out of the woodwork for the annual talent show. This year's show was held in the fall semester and was co-hosted by Phil Bader and Hal Bowling. The competition was extremely fierce yet when the smoke had cleared Dave Reiter came out on top. Second place belonged to Wes King and Bonnie Brown while third place went to the ever popular Singing Ers.

Exam Cram

Once again the faculty and staff came to the aid of the student body in a more "practical way". Yes, they prepared and served the students an exam cram breakfast. The event happened both semesters yet the latter was more memorable since a student and faculty band played and since "Captain Lips" made his last run.

Special Events

The amount of "special events", those events not continued on a yearly basis, dropped somewhat from previous years. Only a handful of concerts were put on such as Romanowski's and Final Triumph's. Other events that picked up the slack included a visit by a magician and a renewed emphasis on the Fine Arts Week. All in all there seemed to be enough events to keep the student's busy.

Late Night At Covenant

"Late Night" was a new idea sponsored by CAB and was patterned after the television show "Late Night With David Letterman". Phil Bader and Hal Bowling teamed up once again in order to co-host the show and together with the "Chosen Few Review" (Steve Smallman, Al DeHart, Chad Hafer and Gus Diamond) they put together two extremely funny evenings. After Phil and Hal introduced Late Night, they joined the Chosen Few Review in order to put on the skits that followed. Notable events of the show have to include the Pain skit, The Stupidest Man in the World skit, the dance scene and the numerous videos. Hopefully this event will be continued in future years.

Plays

The Drama Department, under the guidance of Dean Arnold, stepped up the amount of productions this year and by year's end the final count of plays came to four.

The first play was "Mass Appeal" which was directed by Dean and starred Paul Warren as Father Tim Farley and Dave Bird as Mark Dolson. The next play, also directed by Dean, was "See How They Run" and included Christa Smallman as Penelope Toop, Jenny Shell as Miss Skillon and Rick Pettit as Corporal Winton. The third play was something not seen at Covenant before and that was the first musical, "The House of the Lord". The play was directed by Mike Stair, an instructor of Theatre Arts at Dordt College, and featured a sizable cast of 23 members including Carter Brown as old David, Rebecca Money as his young wife, Jenny Shell as Bathsheba and Steve Smallman as the young David.

The last play to be put on was co-directed by Dean Arnold and Allison Dubose and that was "Tempted, Tried and True". The play was originally put on for the Spring Banquet, but it was so popular that it was put on a second time. The cast included Jenny Shell and Chip Frazier as the villains and Tammy Woods and Jeff Ridering as the good guys.

Senior Banquet

This year's Senior Banquet, held in the Great Hall, featured dinner for the seniors and their guests, musical entertainment and senior testimonies. Yet, the night's festivities did not end at the dinner but continued in the chapel where a concert was given by the brass choir and chorale.

Organizations

Chorale

The Chorale, led by Dr. Hamm, remains as strong as ever. In addition to giving concerts in chapel, after the Senior Banquet and in churches in and around the Chattanooga area, the Chorale made their annual spring break tour. This year they gave concerts in the Northeast which took them through Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Delaware, New York, and Tennessee. Their eleven day tour just added to an already good year of praising God through the lifting up of their voices.

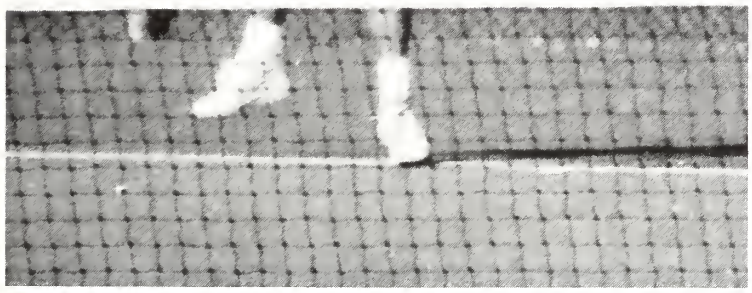
Volunteer Fire Department

The people on the fire department are known to be dedicated men and women who put in alot of time for their practical work. Alot of this time is spent in training, yet, much of it this year was spent in the numerous fire alarms that we had. Yes, it was these people that would fly down the hallway when the alarm would go off and would proceed to order everybody out of the building. If you ever wondered who these people were, they are pictured below.

Tennis Club



The Tennis Club did well this season in the few matches they did play. They produced the number one doubles pair in the region in the NCCAA, that being Jeff Clinton and Dan Patterson. Jeff also took the number four singles position in the tournament. Members of the club include Jeff Clinton (president), Dan Patterson, Kevin Whitmore, Tim McQuitty, Jonathan McClendon, Warren Smith, Steve Barker, and Brian Crossman.

Baseball Club

The Baseball Club also did well this season and was even invited to the District tournament. Members of the club include Dan McDonald, Ugie Merritt, Rock Musto, Paul Davis, Craig Davis, Mickey Norfolk, Kevin Baldwin, Mark Howell, Richard Russell, Doug Gill and John Barrett.

Women's Soccer Club

Men's Football

The Intramural football season proved to be a rough one in which the fourth place team in the regular season came on strong to win the tournament. Pictured below are the champion Pounders who finished the year with a 9-2 record. Standing (l-r): Jeff Clinton, Phil Bader, Dave Seivright, Duke Luper, John Lothers, Rick Reinink, Doug Gill. Sitting: Tim Baum, Kevin Whitmore, Kevin Baldwin, Jim Baxter, Al DeHart.

Women's Football

Kevin Whitmore's team outlasted the rest of the competition to win the women's championship. The women on his team included Barbara Thomas, Anna Vannoy, Tricia Boozer, Sherri Monroe, Kiki Taws, Lori Monroe, Kim Venema, Bonnie McDougall, Rachel Garrison, and Tammie Pols.

Men's Basketball A League

To sum up the whole season- the Frickazoids beat everybody in order to win the A league championship! They finished with a 12-0 record, far ahead of the rest of the competition. Players on the Frickazoids team included Dan McKinney, Jim Coogler, John Briggs, Andy Stephens, Matt Barker and John Barrett.

Men's Basketball B League

After being disappointed the past two seasons, the Jacobians finally grabbed a basketball championship. After finishing second in the regular season they fought hard and won the championship by beating a tough Flintstones team. Jacobians pictured above are Bill Davis, Tom Jones, Jeff Clinton, Andre Wright (coach), Al DeHart, Brian Crossman, Craig Davis. Not pictured is Michael Baker.

Women's Basketball

The Women's Basketball title was captured by Andre and Steve's team when they defeated Kevin Whitmore's team 40-26 in the championship game. Players on Andre and Steve's team consisted of Tammie Smialek, Mary Ingles, Mona Keith, Jacqueline Carpenter and Joyce Lee.

More Intramurals

One might not know it, because of the emphasis on football and basketball, but Covenant does offer more intramural sports than just those two. Other sports that are offered consist of soccer, volleyball and softball.

Soccer, which was played early in the fall, was limited to the men and had teams divided according to classes. In this year's action the seniors (class of '85) took the championship by defeating the juniors and thus finished their intramural history with an undefeated record.

Volleyball, which was played in the spring semester, was the first sport of that semester's coed sports. It was played primarily for the fun of it since no championship was awarded.

The last sport of the intramural year was softball and that concluded the weekend before final exams. This sport was also coed, yet the intensity level was a little higher since the championship was on the line. In the end Al DeHart's team prevailed as they defeated The Basketball Team and protected their perfect record.

All-Star Game

This year's All-Star Game was unique because the match-up included all-stars of Tennessee Temple University. In previous years the all-stars played the soccer team, but this year Covenant's all-stars went down to T.T.U. in order to play their select team. Our all-star team made an impressive showing as they blanked the T.T.U. team 14-0.

Soccer

The soccer team completed their season as the NAIA District 24 runner up due to a loss at King College in the district championship game. Despite this loss, they finished with a good season and an 11-7 record. A highlight of the year had to be their 8 game winning streak and the fact that they accomplished what they did with their young and inexperienced team.

Kneeling: Roy Merritt, Eric Sundquist, Joe Hoess.

Volleyball

It was a great year for the Lady Scots Volleyball Team whose accomplishments include the NCCAA district championship, a berth in the NCCAA tournament and the best season in college history in any sport with a 26-12 record. They accomplished all of this under first year coach Cindy Ricks and with no scholarship money which is a tremendous feat. The 1984 volleyball team is pictured below: (l-r) Stephanie DeBerry, Sarah Snyder, Yukari Takeda, Petie Jones, Jan George, Debbie Carlson, Kim Warren, Kris Swierzb, Erika Streich, Jill Hamilton and Mari Lajara.

The 1984-1985 basketball season was the best ever for the Scot's basketball team. The season concluded with a 17-14 record and contained the NCCAA District 5 title and a berth in the NCCAA National Tournament. Other noted accomplishments of this team have been the naming of Eddie Salter, Billy White and Jeff Parks to All NCCAA District 5, Eddie Salter to the NCCAA second team All-American and Coach Fitzgerald to the District 5 coach of the year.

Lady Scots Basketball

Under first year coach Tammie Smialek the Lady Scots finished with a 5-23 record. Although this year's record was not the school's best, next season looks more promising because of the loss of only a few players. The 1984-1985 Lady Scots are pictured above.
